HOW THE Y SERVICES NATIONAL BRANCH FOUND INNOVATIVE WAYS TO SUPPORT THE APPEAL

Being a National Branch, the Y Services (Garats Hay) Branch might not have the opportunity to raise funds for the Poppy Appeal like local Branches but that hasn't stopped them from contributing. Alongside their other fundraising efforts they started using the Easyfundraising scheme two and a half years ago and they've managed to raise approximately £1600 so far with more than 70 members of the Branch participating.

THE 2019 POPPY APPEAL LAUNCHED WITH OPERATION POPPY

This year the Poppy Appeal is going undercover, with the help of GCHQ in their centenary year, to highlight the unseen contributions of our Armed Forces. Undercover celebrities have accepted a mission to join forces with poppy collectors across the UK and shine a light on their efforts and the invaluable contributions being made by the Armed Forces community. Check out who these celebrities are on our Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

HOW YOUR DONATION HELPS SUPPORT THE ARMED FORCES COMMUNITY

We're dedicated to supporting not only serving and ex-serving personnel but the whole of the Armed Forces community, including their families. From support dealing with the loss of a loved one and short-term breaks when they need it most to help finding jobs and training, we can help in all sorts of ways. We are here to help members of the Royal Navy, British Army, Royal Air Force, veterans and their families. And we're not going anywhere.

WHY NINE-YEAR-OLD MAISIE SUPPORTS THE POPPY APPEAL

"The Poppy People have helped all of us as a family and so I want to give something back by raising money." Nine-year-old Maisie, who is a Poppy Appeal collector, said. Each year thousands of members and volunteers help raise vital funds during the Poppy Appeal. Read Maisie's story to find out how the Legion helped her family after her father left the Army.

POPPIES - THE TRUTH BEHIND SOME LONG-STANDING MYTHS

After 100 years in circulation as a worldwide symbol of Remembrance, the meaning behind the poppy can understandably get a little lost in translation. We've chosen the most common poppy myths and turned them into this familyfriendly mythbuster! See what these mythical creatures have to say about these poppy myths, and help us spread the word by sharing this.

TEACHING REMEMBRANCE WITH THE LEGION'S FREE LESSON PLANS

VISIT ONE OF THE SIX FIELDS OF REMEMBRANCE IN THE UK

Our newly launched Teaching Remembrance hub provides learning resources to encourage students to explore the idea of Remembrance and discover its relevance today. The Royal British Legion partnered with the National Literacy Trust to deliver a set of lesson plans and assemblies spanning Key Stage 2, 3 and 4. All materials are free, and downloadable in English and Welsh. Each year, thousands of Legion members and supporters plant Tributes to fallen loved ones, comrades, and all those who served in one of six Fields of Remembrance across the UK. Visit your nearest Field in Gateshead, Belfast, Cardiff, the National Memorial Arboretum, Swindon, or Westminster in November and read the Tributes that have been made to remember those who paid the ultimate sacrifice.
